2. Read the following passage then answer the questions in the spaces provided.

Long time ago, there were no zebras, but there were donkeys which were wild. The donkeys were hunted by humans. So many donkeys got killed in this way and they became worried. "At this rate, we shall all get killed," one donkey said. "We should so something and do it faster," another one said. They discussed for a long time but no solution was found. They decided to go and ask for hare's advice. Hare was greatly respected in the world those days. He always gave solutions to all problems brought before him. When the donkeys arrived at hare's house, they did not have to knock. Hare was basking, lying on his back in the sun outside his house. As soon as he saw the donkeys, he was up on his feet ready to receive them.
